Heart for Art

The personal stories of the Heart for Art artists are as diverse as their art work. For instance, take Carol, Margaret and Mary.

Since recently joining the group, Carol has discovered a talent she never knew she had and continues to develop her skills. Carol has a wonderful vibrant personality which is reflected in her painting of "The Wise Men". She loves coming along to the group and looks forward to producing something new every week for her family and gains a sense of achievement and joy with every painting.

Margaret is a relative newcomer to Heart for Art and has no previous art experience. She used to enjoy cooking and baking but that is now much more challenging, so painting is a new and wonderful interest for her. She always looks forward to coming to Heart for Art and is really excited that one of her paintings will be used for a CrossReach Christmas card.

Mary also has no previous art experience yet is always keen to have a go and her limited mobility doesn't stop her attending. She has produced many wonderful paintings at the group and had one image printed as the Christmas card for Bankfoot Church Centre and is delighted her painting of the robin is now a card for CrossReach.

Ben's Story

Ben (11) has been visiting Perth Visitor Support and Advice Centre (PVSAC) for the past few months with his care-giver. He is on the spectrum for autism and has been recently diagnosed with ADHD. Despite this, he had been attending a mainstream school, until he got excluded a few weeks ago. This exclusion has had a negative impact on his behaviour whilst visiting his step-dad in prison.

With the full support of Ben's care-giver, his ADHD support worker together with his school, CrossReach staff put together a safety and activities plan to meet his needs. We also worked with the Visits Manager in the Prison so that Ben and his family can visit his step-dad on their own when the Visit Room is empty, while the PVSAC Children's Worker facilitates play to keep Ben occupied.
